

SATURDAY, NOV. 24 - THURSDAY, DEC. 20

Monday - Thursday..... Close at 12 midnight
 Friday (No Extended Hours).....Close at 6 p.m.
 Saturday & Sunday.....Close at 9 p.m.

- The RHPL Extended Study Hall Program is offered at Central Library during university and college exams. It provides quiet study space for eligible students after the Library closes to the general public.
- Students of any university or college may attend. You must have a valid student ID card and a valid RHPL card.
- Vehicles must be removed from underground parking before regular closing hours.
- Re-entry privileges are not allowed. You are required to be in the Library before regular closing hours and may depart anytime but will not be allowed to re-enter after regular closing hours.
- You can use the Library's wireless services during the study hall program. No assistance is available after the Library's regular closing hours. It is your responsibility to be familiar with your own personal devices and settings.

- You may not order food for delivery. Outside catering of food is not permitted.
- Only behaviour that promotes a quiet, respectful study environment is acceptable. The Library reserves the right, as per the posted RHPL Customer Code of Conduct, to ensure a quiet study environment and the safety of its users and staff.

At any time, security may request to see your student card during the Study Hall program. Participants are required to respect RHPL's Customer Code of Conduct.
